Why SHE Virtual Recovery Summit?

“ME TOO.”

Those two words of admission started my own journey to freedom after nearly a decade of pornography addiction and other unwanted sexual behaviors. It was a long journey, and not always an easy one—but a journey worth every step.

Female porn use is on the rise, but it certainly isn't new. At a time when female porn use was deafeningly silent (18 years ago), I found my own recovery because one Christian woman was bold enough to share her story with me and support me on a path of healing and empowerment. Now, as a pastoral counselor and the founder of Living on Purpose and SheRecovery.com, I have heard the frustrations of women who believe they are unique in their struggle, just as I thought I was in my isolation with porn. But our struggles are not as unique as we might believe.

Even though I have been working with women for more than 15 years and more women are rising up to tell their stories today, female addiction is still not widely talked about. Women still feel alone and not getting help they need—especially teen girls and women in the Church. That is what inspired me to create the SHE Virtual Recovery Summit in 2020 and am excited to offer it again:

SHE: Support. Heal. Empower.

That's the resonating message of the SHE Virtual Recovery Summit 2022 coming October 17-21, 2022. 5 Days. 30+ Experts & Storytellers.

Experts and storytellers will share over this 5-Day virtual event — their stories, their expertise, and their hope for meaningful recovery from pornography and other unwanted sexual behaviors. With topics ranging from recovery, to trauma and abuse, to identity and shame, to faith, the Church, advocacy, and more. This faith-based, online summit will answer the questions many female porn addicts are asking and lead them safely into the process of recovery.

In addition, the SHE Summit is designed for pastors, ministry leaders, and counselors to engage in these issues to serve women who struggle better, including opportunities for Q&A and dialogue. This year's Summit will also feature special sessions and opportunities for teen girls and parents.

I am so excited to offer this event again and for the advocacy, awareness, and above all, support, healing, and empowerment that will take place. Join us!

Blessings,

Crystal Renaud Day, MAPC
